NEWSPAPER COMMENT.

What the Editors of the Country are Saying About Leading Topics of the Day.

It is very difficult to convince the people that the present prosperity is unreal and temporary.—Clayton (Mo.) Watchman.

The McKinley brand of prosperity is enjoyed by the Democrats even if they will try to vote it out.—Little Rock (Ark.) Republican.

It is difficult to convince a man whose bank account is steadily growing that his prosperity is only apparent.—Fairhaven (Wash.) Times.

McKinley always makes a "good times" speech on his travels, and it is significant that he is never able to find a place where it doesn't fit in.—San Francisco Chronicle.

The failure of the country to go to the dogs under Republican rule has shattered some very confident prophecies of the Bryanites three years ago.—Indianapolis Journal.

A calico trust in England has been capitalized at $50,000,000. As its parent cannot be a Protective Tariff, Democrats will claim that this trust is an orphan.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Butler county, Kan., farmers have resolved not to sell a bushel of corn for less than 25 cents. No such resolution is necessary under a Republican administration.—Springfield (Mo.) Republican.

There is absolutely no consolation anywhere for the Calamity Howler. Here is a new steel mill to be erected on Neville Island, near Pittsburg, to cost $10,000,000.—Harrisburg (Penn.) Telegraph.

A prominent Kentucky Democrat, whose patriotism rises above his party, in a speech, recently said: "We are on the threshold of a better and nobler day, and the man who stands in the way will be run over."—Carmi (Ill.) Times.

While we do not raise much silk in this country, we manufacture a vast amount of it—$32,000,000 worth of silk goods being the present figure, with $5,000,000 paid in annual wages. That is one of the triumphs of Republican Protection.—Lowell (Mass.) Spy.

That there are trusts not fathered by a Protective Tariff is shown by statistics from England, France and Germany. The Board of Trade of Birmingham, England, is now investigating the shipping trust, which it is claimed is working serious injury to British industry.—Tacoma, (Wash.) Ledger.

Prosperity, which has visited this section generally since the Republican administration removed the hoodoo of Groverism, seems to have made its headquarters at Barre. It is many years since the town has enjoyed anything like the present business activity, and it gives promise of permanency.—Worcester (Mass.) Spy.

Four years ago crowds of men could be seen every morning at nearly all of the factory gates in the country hoping for a chance to get a day's work at any kind of wages. How different now, when the factories are advertising for men to take the good wages that Republican prosperity has brought.—Louisiana (Mo.) News.

Prosperity is pleasant to contemplate. It is an excellent tonic for a stomach made torpid by inactivity, but while we are in the midst of all this enjoyment it might be well to think for a moment of the cause of all this prosperity. It is the natural result of a businesslike government, run

EVERY-DAY HEROISM!
Struggling through life, cursed with catarrh, is a common experience. However heroic the fight catarrh generally wins. Under some name or other it gets the best of you. Frank E. Ingalls, Waco, Tex., and thousands of others have been permanently cured of catarrh by Dr. Hartman's successful remedy, Pe-ru-na. Here is Mr. Ingalls' letter: Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, O.

DEAR SIR:—Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin have cured me of one of the worst cases of catarrh any one ever had. My case was so severe that I was compelled to discontinue my business, that of conductor on a railroad; but I am now entirely well.

Ordinary treatment of catarrh is for local relief. Cures are not expected. Dr. Hartman's method eradicates catarrh absolutely. Get his latest book and learn how to combat this insidious disease. The Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, O., will mail Dr. Hartman's books free on application.

H. A. Scott, Burt, Tenn., writes: "I feel very thankful to my Maker and your great medicine that I am cured. I would not be without Pe-ru-na in my house."

Pe-ru-na has been curing catarrh for forty years. It plucks out the roots of catarrh and builds people up. All druggists sell it.

on sound financial principles, a Protective Tariff which prevents the cheap product of pauper labor from coming into competition with home-made goods, and the encouragement of American industries. Keep this in mind when commenting on the present prosperity of our country.—New York American Workman.

The improved condition of the workmen is more important to this country than any amount of foreign trade. When foreign trade can be obtained only by lengthening the day or lessening the wages of American labor, we would better get along without it. High paid labor is the pride of this country, and any Protection which does not protect that is not worth having.—Gaston's Magazine, November, 1899.

"The Republican party," carols the Hon. Chauncey Forward Black, in the Democratic York Gazette, "will be in absolute control of the Congress which meets in December." Well, what of it? You don't see the mills closing up because of that fact, do you, or the factories shutting down, or the army of unemployed men increasing? All of those things occurred when the Democrats were in absolute control, but that, of course, was different.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

During the past twenty-four months of the Dingley law the importations amounted to $295,399,639 less than those of the last twenty-four months of the Wilson law. Yet in spite of the great reduction of imports, meaning, to say the least, that much additional manufacturing in the United States, the Dingley law yielded $40,656,795 more revenue in its first two years than did the Wilson law in its corresponding two years. And yet there are Statesmen and editors who aver that we should go back to the low Tariffs.—Williamsport (Pa.) Bulletin.

The cotton manufacturing of the country seems to have adjusted itself into very satisfactory shape, and the New England factories in particular are no longer in need of popocratic sympathies as to the bad effect of the Dingley law upon their industry. The menace to the Northern mills through the opening of new factories in the South has disappeared, and mills both North and South are declaring good dividends and giving steady employment to thousands of operatives at satisfactory wages.—Wells (N. Y.) Adirondack Herald.

Our exports were to fall off under the Dingley Protective Tariff, don'tcher know? Why does Mr. Bryan fail to call attention to the "falling off"? Exports of manufactures have reached a million dollars a day under the beneficent influence of the Dingley Protective Tariff law, having been $211,975,904 in the first seven months of the present year, while in the corresponding months of the first year of the Wilson law they were $110,389,946, or about half a million dollars a day. Hence the urgent necessity for "new issues."—Burlington Hawk-Eye.

In Memoriam.

In memory of Lillie A. Brown, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Brown, who departed this life October 31, 1899, aged 20 years. In the calm evening just as darkness was gathering and the stars were softly gleaming in the sky, the "Wheels of Life" stood still, and the angels ushered dear Lillie over the "River of Death." How shocked and sorely grieved were the hearts of her many friends and relatives when the sad news was told. Though our hearts are saddened and we deeply feel the loss of one whom we loved so well, yet there is one consoling thought—the assurance that she has gained a home in heaven, and to-day, is basking in the sunshine of the Creator whom she sought and remembered while yet in the days of her youth. She lived a devout Christian life worthy of imitation. We mourn that one so young and fair—just budding into womanhood—should have so short a journey on the sea of life. She was looking forward with bright hopes—striving to attain the ends for which God gave her intellect, but alas! in an instant, all her hopes were cut off and she passed away while a merry hearted school girl. She will be missed and her place can never be filled.

By her sunny disposition she won a host of friends wherever she went, and her smiling face and loving voice can never be erased from our memory. The work those hands have done—the words those lips have uttered will stand as a monument to her true womanly character. While her voice is hushed here on earth, there is one more voice in heaven singing praises with the angels. May we all so live, that when life's fatal lever is over, we will meet with loved ones in that beautiful beyond, where we'll never say: "Good-bye." ALICE.

A PLEA FOR JUSTICE.

An Original Goebel Editor Denounces the Attempts of Election Commissioners to Steal the State and DEMANDS THE INAUGURATION OF GENERAL W. S. TAYLOR.

"Squire Turner, editor of the Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat, and one of the strong and original Goebel men of the State, denounces the attempt of Goebel and his election commissioners to steal the State in a double column, double-headed editorial in yesterday's Sentinel Democrat, says the Louisville Dispatch of Nov. 15th.

It is self-explanatory. Read it: "The official and unofficial returns from last Tuesday's election demonstrate conclusively to our mind that the majority of the legal voters of Kentucky have expressed a preference for William S. Taylor as our next chief executive, and this being the case—and there can be no doubt that it is—Democrat that we are, and Goebel supporter that we have been from the outset, our sense of fairness and justice compels us to state that we think Mr. Taylor should be given the certificate of election and inaugurated on December 12 as Governor of Kentucky, without protest and without trouble. Even the most ardent Goebel supporters, we believe, do not claim that Mr. Goebel has received a plurality of the votes cast and that the certificate of election could only be given to him by the throwing out, on technicalities, of counties, which gave large Republican majorities and counting the votes in Nelson county certified as cast for William P. Taylor, for William P. Taylor, which were evidently cast and intended for William S. Taylor. That the sovereign freemen, casting these votes, wanted to and did vote for William S. Taylor there can be no question of a doubt.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

How the Tariff League's Industrial Census Returns Impress the Country.

It figures such as these that are full of encouragement to the American people and make them satisfied with existing conditions.—Utica (N. Y.) "Press."

If this is the result of a little over 1,900 selected establishments, what a gain the advance in all the establishments in the country must have been in the past four years. These gains are what help to promote all other kinds of business.—Norwich (Conn.) "Bulletin."

These figures are eloquent with instruction for ever voter in the land. They are not exceptional ones. Every intelligent person knows that they accurately represent the condition of things coming under his own notice. But coming as they do, as an index of the condition of affairs in every State of the Union and in every line of industry, they ought to convince every sensible voter of the wisdom of casting his ballot at the coming election for the Republican ticket.—Pittsburg "Times."

One will hunt the records of industrial gains in this country in vain for a parallel of an increase of wages paid, 54.09 per cent. in four years, or even of 2,000 industrial establishments increasing their employees nearly 40 per cent. which means employing in 1899 140 men where they employed 100 in 1895. This is a Republican record, and of itself should be issue enough upon which to sweep the country. And yet there are newspapers and politicians who insist that the improvement in business is not real, but the result of the manipulation of trusts.—Indianapolis "Journal."

That Throbbing Headache

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by J. H. Williams, Druggist.

The above figures tell their own story of how the wage earner has profited by present prosperity. In order to appreciate the full significance of the showing made, however, it should be borne in mind that prosperous industrial conditions had not by any means reached their present high stage during March. It has been since that time that the demand for labor has increased to the point of exceeding the supply, and it was also later in the spring and summer when many of the most substantial increases in wage scales were granted. It is quite certain that if a similar canvass would be made now the showing both as to the amount of labor employed and the amount of wages paid, would be swelled to a considerable extent.—Sioux City (Ia.) "Journal."

Coughed 25 Years.
I suffered for 25 years with a cough, and spent hundreds of dollars with doctors and for medicine to no avail until I used Dr. Bell's Pine Tar-Honey. This remedy makes weak lungs strong. It has saved my life.—J. B. Roswell, Grantsburg, Ill. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

And this is only half the story. The figures are based on conditions as they existed last March, since which time the greatest stride in the country's industrial history has been made. Furthermore, only old and well established companies are represented. Thousands of new enterprises, created as a direct result of restored confidence were of course unable to furnish comparative figures. The per capita increase in wage rates up to March was 10.49 per cent. As the tendency has been continuously upward since that time, it cannot be far from 15 per cent. This, together with the increased number of men employed, places in the hands of American workmen millions of extra dollars weekly.—New York "Commercial."

Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro. guarantee every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for the gripper, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

Weak Eyes Are Made Strong.
dim vision made clear, styes removed and granulated lids or sore eyes of any kind speedily and effectively cured by the use of Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve. It's put up in tubes, and sold on a guarantee by all good druggists. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

Beauty is Blood Deep.
Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lax liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.

A HUSBAND SAYS:

"Before my wife began using Mother's Friend she could hardly get around. I do not think she could get along without it now. She has used it for two months and it is a great help to her. She does her housework without trouble."

Mother's Friend

is an external liniment for expectant mothers. It gives them the strength to attend to their household duties almost to the hour of confinement. It is the one and only preparation that relaxes and relieves the strain. It is the only remedy that makes labor short and delivery easy. It is the only remedy that puts the breasts in condition so that swelling or rising is impossible. Don't take medicines internally. They endanger the lives of both mother and child. Mother's Friend is sold by druggists for $1. Send for free illustrated book. The Bradford Regulator Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Lung Irritation
is the forerunner to consumption. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar-Honey will cure it, and give such strength to the lungs that a cough or cold will not settle there. Twenty-five cents at all good druggists. For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

The month of March, 1895, was the most prosperous under the operations of the Wilson Tariff law, but the month of March, 1899, did not witness so high a tide of general prosperity as is now witnessed. So the showing, if brought up to the present time, would be much more favorable to 1899. There has been a very large expansion trade and of industrial activity since last March. But, what is still better, there has been a constant succession of increases of wages, and the general level must now be considerably higher than it was seven or eight months ago, while thousands more of industrial workpeople have found remunerative employment. It needs but a glance over the situation to show how much better off the country and its wage-earners are under McKinley than they were under Cleveland.—Troy (N. Y.) "Times."

NO CURE—NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell GROUT'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Malaria, Chills and Fever. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price, 50c.

Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away.
To quit tobacco easily and forever, be magnetic, full of life, nerve and vigor, take No-To-Bac, the wonder-worker, that makes weak men strong. All druggists, 50c or $1. Cure guaranteed. Booklet and sample free. Address: Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

Were the statistics available they would doubtless show that the number of hands employed in manufacturing industries at present is more than 50 per cent. greater than in October, 1895, when the Wilson Tariff had been in operation fourteen months, while wages are from 20 to 30 per cent. higher. In 1895 there was a vast army of idle labor, while now there is very little, one of the commercial agencies in its last weekly trade report stating that at many points manufacturers find it hard to get enough competent hands. With such facts before him no intelligent workman should have any doubt as to which party policy, he should support.—Omaha "Bee."

THAT Gen. Taylor is elected there is not the slightest doubt. His plurality in the State, officially, is 2,414.

GOEBEL is surprised at the people of Kentucky because they will not permit him to do as he and Jo would like.

HENRY WATKINSON just now is in the middle of a very bad fix. He was for Goebel, but against Goebel's platform. We would pronounce his case that of a predicament.

A SPECIAL election has been called in the 7th district to fill the vacancy in Congress caused by the death of Congressman Settle. December 18th is the day for the election.

CAPT. ELLIS virtually declared that he was an expansionist in a speech before the court Wednesday. It is only a question of time when the Democratic party will have an expansion plank in its platform.

UREY WOODSON has gone to Chicago to let off that pent up gas which has been accumulating on his little brain during the past few weeks. Urey is much of a "blow" and when this is said the story has been told.

THAT letter which appeared in the Courier-Journal and reproduced in the Herald, in which it was claimed that a special train, packed with Taylor men from Evansville, Indiana, arrived at Earlinton about 2 o'clock Tuesday morning, has proven to be another of the Courier-Journal's lies. The man that wrote it knew it was a lie and therefore would not sign it.

SHOULD Bryan be so unfortunate as to obtain the Democratic nomination for the Presidency next year, he will have to face every speech he made in Kentucky during the Goebel campaign. He will have to admit that he was an ardent supporter of force and fraud, and persuaded gallant Kentuckians to accept that which he would not ask Nebraska to endorse--Goebelism.

It is indeed strange that the Goebel election officers permitted so much fraud to be committed by the Republicans, for the Republicans were in the minority in every county in the State without a single exception. No Democrat of intelligence says nay to this fact. And yet there was never so much fraud committed by the Republicans they say. This talk is all demagoguery, from demagogues.

VICE-PRESIDENT GARRET AUGUSTUS HOBART passed away quietly at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. He had been sick for sometime and was not expected to recover. The Vice-President's chair is vacant and will remain so until the end of the present administration March 4, 1901, since there is no provision for the vacancy by law. William B. Fry, of Maine, is the present chairman of the Senate and will likely be re-elected when Congress convenes.

LAST Tuesday the doors of the Kentucky House of Reform swung open to admit those young people who are too young to be placed in the penitentiary for offenses against the law. In this institution trades of all kinds will be taught the young offenders of the law, and a sense of right living will be instilled into their minds instead of their former course. This is a much needed improvement added to the State, which is due to the untiring efforts of Gov. Bradley.

CONGRESSMAN EVAN E. SETTLE, of Oenton, Owen county, died suddenly of a severe prostration and heart trouble, the 16th instant. His death was a great surprise to his family and friends. It will be remembered that Mr. Settle came to this county during the recent campaign in the interest of the Goebel ticket. His was the best Democratic effort made in the county during the entire campaign. Mr. Settle was serving a second term in Congress from the 7th district at the time of his death.

CAPT. N. T. HOWARD's vote in this Senatorial district was a compliment to the worthy young man. No candidate in this district ever received such a complimentary vote as was given Capt. Howard on Nov. 7. Butler, his home county, gave him 1,085 majority, Muhlenberg 678 majority and Ohio 513 majority. His majority in the district is 2,276. This has the appearance of a Howard landslide. The people of the 7th Senatorial district have taken Captain Howard's measure. They have weighed him in the balance of public sentiment and found him a very worthy man to represent this district in the next General Assembly. The people of Ohio county know a good thing when they see it, likewise Muhlenberg and Butler.

THERE is nothing so baleful to a small man as the shadow of a great man. The editor of the Herald has fallen in the shadow of the Hon. C. M. Barnett and is now showing his forlorn condition. This editor, in attempting to account for the 585 Republican majority in this county to console himself and his few followers, arraigns the character of one of Ohio county's most prominent and promising sons. This scope-gout editor can be relied upon to do most anything, but no one had thought that he would accuse the Democratic party in this county of being on the market, and that Hon. C. M. Barnett had purchased it with the L. & N. boodle. Mr. Barnett is in no sense guilty of the charges this degenerate sheet has heaped upon him. The sensible, sober and thinking citizens alone are responsible for the landslide in the county.

DEMOCRACY FORSAKEN.

Few men realize, at first thought, the cause of the Republican landslide in this county. But when a few facts have been fairly considered by rational men the mystery is clear to the bitter partisan. THE REPUBLICAN does not presume to be a great prophet, but it ventures to explain the mystery of Ohio county's vote, in case there should be any at this late hour. Men of conviction and honesty have been permitted to speak to every one who may learn. These men have spoken at the ballot box and from there it has gone abroad. Others have even gone farther, with this class of earnest and patriotic men must be placed Attorney John T. Rone, of Centertown. A man believed by the Creator, with Democratic atmosphere to breathe from infancy, a man for 30 years addicted to Democratic environment and Democratic instruction, a man who voted the Democratic ticket because from his training he could see more nearly the wants of the common people in that party than any other political organization, for which course, we have no censure to heap upon him. Yet when this young man grew to that stage in life that he was determined to read, reason and judge for himself and be his own keeper, politically speaking, he was regenerated. He hails no man or party as his king or savior, but holds himself free to be further enlightened in political economy. He says that the Democratic party is a party of broken promises and false pretenses dominated by a set of unscrupulous politicians. It was claimed in the campaign of '96 that a panic would sweep this nation, such as was never recorded in the history of man, if McKinley was elected. McKinley was elected and the question needs no answer, the times are self-explanatory. Mr. Rone has noted these events, and from his observation, he has drawn his conclusion. He is a promising young man and sees that the principles of the Republican party go hand-in-hand with progress and prosperity, and as a far-minded man steps on board the old ship of State, guided by men of Republican faith. THE REPUBLICAN assumes the authority to greet this young man into our realm and extends the hand of fellowship in good standing to him, our welcomed convert. It is safe now to predict that in 1900 Ohio county will give McKinley 800 majority.

The Herald Would Impeach Judge Toney.

The degenerated and base organs of Goebelism are now condemning Judge Sterling B. Toney for compelling election officers to sign the certificates of election, which, according to the Goebel law, is their sworn duty. Judge Toney was a Goebel man. He voted for Goebel on November 7, and when, as an officer of trust, he was called upon to exercise his authority in forcing these men to perform their duty, he is styled a political traitor by such vile and abusive journals as the Hartford Herald. These defeated men of lost pride, honor and self-respect pour out their wrath upon all men who respect, honor and maintain the dignity of their high positions of trust. The decisions of Judges Toney and Jones are styled "government by injunction and election by injunction." These same yellow journals, which are now so bitterly opposed to this "injunction system" were its ardent supporters in 1897. The good people of this county yet remember that injunction, which Judge Owen sustained in the contested election of '97, which decision was reversed by a Democratic Court of Appeals on every point. We presume that the Herald will impeach Judge Toney for playing the part of an honest man. The Goebelian editors, void of any compunction of conscience, in denouncing such men as these honorable judges, show their hands. They are anxious that Goebel make his contemplated steal, to which they would shout, hallelujah, amen! For these judges to be impeached by the Legislature and Goebel counted in as Governor would plunge Kentucky into a Revolution. Men of intelligence and fair-mindedness know this to be a dangerous move for Goebel, and his hand of robbery is thus stayed by their refusing to do his bidding.

The Best Prescription for Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chills Tonic. Never fails to cure; then why experiment with worthless imitations? Price, 50c.

DEMOCRATIC DUPLICITY.

Despite the attempts of Goebel and his hirelings to rob the intelligent voters of Kentucky of their right and privilege of a voice in their government, the intelligence and manhood of the old State, in spite of the great disadvantages resulting from the Goebel law, have buried Goebel and every one of his henchmen beneath a plurality of not less than 5,000 honest votes. Had every man in the State been permitted to have exercised his pleasure at the polls, as men have formerly in Kentucky, the majority would have exceeded 40,000. But this was not possible under the present election law. Had this been done, the spirit and intent of the law would have been thwarted. This law was purporting to grind out a Goebel majority at all hazards. It was the intent of the law and its author to rob honest men of what God gave them. Nothing better can be given as proof of this statement than South Trimble's letter, and the removal of 87 precinct officers in Louisville the night before the election. The election commissioners of Jefferson county never gave any excuse for this bold act. They had the power, as we have stated time after time, to remove election officers at any time without cause. They merely exercised this power at the request of the ambitious man from Kenton. Honest men everywhere were agreed that this law was the most unfair piece of legislation ever concocted by man of any political faith in any realm. That this law is dangerous, in the hands of men, there is no doubt. It would be alright in the hands of angels, but there happens to be no such things in the form of men. The newspaper that exhausted its vile of condemnation and abuse of this law in the days of its infancy and attempted its destruction, became its trusted nurse in the days of its maturity. Notwithstanding the fact that Goebel, Blackburn, the Courier-Journal and Company declared, previous to the election, that nothing was ever so certain before in man's history as the fact that this election was entirely out of the Republican party's power and ability to steal. The very first thing we hear from them, when they recognize defeat, is a pitiful cry of fraud and intimidation. These political outlaws, banditti and buccaneers have been disappointed in the result of the machine's ability to make votes and they are now trying to justify a raid on the peoples' rights, which they have planned by the cry of fraud and force, which they declared three weeks ago to be impossible. In Louisville and Breathitt county our inspectors were met with revolvers in the hands of the Goebel election officers and forced to leave the voting room. In many precincts of these and other counties our inspectors were forcibly ejected. In Louisville, Covington and Lexington policemen arrested, clubbed from the polls inoffensive people and deprived them of their right to vote. In these same cities and many others, the election officers purposely delayed the voting (in many cases polling less than one hundred votes) and left from twenty-five to one hundred and fifty in line when the polls closed. In Kenton county where officers failed to certify to the result in Democratic precincts, they were summoned by the county board and allowed to supply the certificate, and in Union county, where one Democratic candidate was not certified, the board ordered the election officers to appear before them and correct their certificate. But in Green, Greenup, Lewis, Elliott, Carter, Boyd and other counties where similar errors were made against Republican candidates, the boards refused or failed to ask the officers to correct their certificates, and the Republicans have been forced to ask the courts to compel them to perform a plain statutory duty.

In Nelson county the election officers in every precinct save one falsely certified that Wm. T. Taylor received the Republican votes of that county, when every ballot was cast for Wm. S. Taylor, and yet the county board refused to have these certificates corrected although some of the ballots showing that they had been cast for Wm. S. and not Wm. T. Taylor were before the board, and we again had to appeal to the court to compel these men to do their duty. In Graves and Ballard counties, where Mr. Goebel received nearly 3,000 plurality, the paper on which the ballots were printed was so thin that the stencil mark could be seen through two folds of the paper and no complaint was made, and yet in Knox and Johnson counties, where paper of equal thickness was used, an attempt was made to throw out these counties and we had to appeal to the court in one case to compel the commissioners to certify the vote as cast. In Harrison county a precinct giving a Republican plurality of 133 was thrown out on the State race because a candidate for council was a challenger and yet they counted the precinct for this same challenger and this was done in the face of the fact, well known to the board, that any candidate may under the law be a challenger or inspector. In Christian county, a precinct giving a Republican plurality of 95, was thrown out for the alleged reason that 238 of the 419 ballots were not signed by the clerk—a man appointed by their own commissioners over the protest of the Republicans. Thus not only disfranchising the 238 voters whose ballots were not signed, but also the other 181 voters whose ballots had been signed, burned by the election officers and properly certified to the county commissioners. In every case where the Republicans asked to have clerical errors corrected, they were met with the statement that the county board's duties were merely ministerial and they had no power to reconvene election officers or correct patent errors, while in Christian, Harrison and other counties similar boards were sitting in judgment going back of the returns and throwing out Republican precincts. After all these wrongs have been committed and many others it is apparent to all that the Republican ticket has won by about 5,000 plurality, and the Courier-Journal, as if to inspire such action, says that the State board will throw out the city of Louisville, and the counties of Knox and Johnson, and applauds the efforts to count against Gen. Taylor the votes cast for him in Nelson county because a malignant Democratic printer printed the certificate in ballot books "Wm. T." instead of Wm. S. Taylor.

Will men of Kentucky, through whose veins courses the blood of their spirited and honored fathers, submit and allow this man of eternal ruin to count those votes cast on November 7? We predict that Kentuckians will never submit. Kentuckians have died on the battlefield for the freedom of others. Will they not be found at the same post fighting for their own liberties if needs be? We have elected General Taylor beyond any doubt and he must be seated, peaceably if possible, if not otherwise. It should be borne on every breeze to every land, that when we, as Kentuckians die, we will die freemen. When this is thoroughly understood by Goebel and his henchmen and all this quibbling over technicalities and throwing out counties and precincts will be at an end. Men of Kentucky, maintain and defend your liberties and freedom, or allow yourselves to fall into eternal slavery.

Barnett's Reply to the Herald.

HARTFORD, Ky., 22, 1899.
EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—I have seen a large number of idiotic baby act excuses offered for the Democratic defeat in the election which they held recently, but it remained for the Hartford Herald to accuse its own folks of "selling out" to the wicked Republicans. Listen to the "Herald of a noisy world" latest wail:

"WHY IT WAS SO."

"The large majority which was recorded against the Democratic party in this county at the recent election, was at first a matter of surprise and chagrin to all Democrats, but post-election developments have served to throw a great light on the subject. Reports from all the different precincts of Republican election work and a little study of conditions, are sufficient to confirm the most skeptical reasoner if he had any doubts as to the methods practiced to carry Ohio county for Taylor and the Republican ticket."

"Republican hoodwink was used lavishly in this county and without stint. Be it said to our discredit, there is a large floating element here, and it was from this vote that the Republicans realized their greatest gains. The chairman of the Republican State Central Committee is a native of our county. By virtue of his high rank in the councils and manipulations of his party in the State, he no doubt had the first pull at the L. & N.'s barrel. Mr. Barnett was never known to be modest in his political demands or manner, and it is the rim of the barrel struck him in the arm pit, of course it was but evidence of his well known characteristics. And then his next thoughts, of course, were of 'the folks at home.'"

It is said, if you anger a snake in Sympathy may help a wounded heart but it won't heal a wounded limb.

That fact is so obvious that you wonder why any one can offer "sympathy" as the chief feature of treatment for the delicate diseases of women. Yet women are invited to "write to a woman who can sympathize with women," and the theme of their correspondence is to be the delicate, difficult and dangerous diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength. It is true that such offers are combined with an offer of "medical advice." But medical advice can only be given by a competent physician, and no mention is made in such offers of a physician's or doctor's advice. It is not offered because it cannot be given. The offer is not being made by a qualified physician.

The offer of free consultation by letter, made to ailing women by Doctor R. V. Pierce, is a real and a physician's ability. Dr. Pierce is consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Associated with Dr. Pierce is a staff of nearly a score of physicians, each man a specialist. In a practice of over thirty years Dr. Pierce and his staff have treated successfully more than half a million women, who have been cured of debilitating drains, inflammations, ulcerations and female troubles. The age, experience and skill of Dr. Pierce give him a superior advantage in his chosen field of diseases of women.

You can write to Dr. Pierce without fear and without fee. Every letter is read privately and answered confidentially, the answer being sent in a plain envelope, without any printing upon it. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, sent free of nearly a score of physicians, each man a specialist. In a practice of over thirty years Dr. Pierce and his staff have treated successfully more than half a million women, who have been cured of debilitating drains, inflammations, ulcerations and female troubles. The age, experience and skill of Dr. Pierce give him a superior advantage in his chosen field of diseases of women.

"Og days," it will strike in all directions without having any particular object in view. This is the only way I can account for the Herald editor's slanderous insinuations against me. I never brought a dollar of L. & N. money to Ohio county, nor any other county and never had a dollar of their money in my possession in my life, and any statement to the contrary by the writer of the above article or any one else is a falsehood.

Moreover, I do not believe that the good Democrats of Ohio county, among whom I was born and reared and among whom I expect to make my home in the future, will sell their convictions for "L. & N. boodle" or any other boodle. That they sometimes change their political faith, honestly even though they read the Hartford Herald, is evidenced by the elections in Ohio county for several years. No, my boy, you cannot account for the heavy majority in Ohio county this year in the way you attempt. If so, what about Davies, McLean, Grayson, and all the surrounding counties, in fact? Did the Democrats in these counties sell out? Be candid, and above all, be truthful as near as you can, and when you are, you will have to admit that your defeat in the recent election, which you held, was caused by the unpopularity of your cause, your candidates, or both.

In closing I will say, when I conclude that the Democrats of Ohio county, whom I respect, and among whom are some of the dearest friends I have on earth, are for sale like so many cattle, and when I forget my own training, and accept "hoodwink" bring it to Ohio county to influence an election, I will begin with the Herald, the fountain head of Ohio county Democracy, the editor of which in my opinion is far more purchasable than the honest Democrats of the rural districts. Respectfully,
C. M. BARNETT.

IN MEMORIAM.

Sister Etta James Hudson, who departed this life, April 27th, 1899, to experience the realities of the better world, was a daughter of Brother and Sister S. M. James, and the wife of Brother James A. Hudson, all of the quiet and Christianly lived village of Select, Ohio county, Ky. All who knew her well, loved her much. She was a friend to all and knew no such thing as malice toward any. Chaste in character and amiable in disposition. In brief, she was a Christian in deed and in truth, which is sufficient to express, in a word, what her life was. She rejoiced in her privilege to serve the living God, and in her confidence obtained from His word, the promise. She remained steadfast in every trial and exceedingly patient in her hours of affliction, believing with one of old, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in Him." It is not now our privilege to enjoy her friendship neither the privilege of her husband to enjoy her companionship. She is no more to encourage us by her cheerful smile and gracious words of sympathy. No more to comfort us by her benevolent deeds of charity performed by her own loving hands.

It was hard to say farewell, but we rejoice to know that our separation shall only be brief. If we remain faithful to the end we shall then be permitted to see her again and to enjoy her company forever where the word farewell is never spoken. The inspired John said, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors and their words do follow them." Her works shall never be forgotten. She is now resting in that celestial city which hath the foundations sure enough, whose maker and builder is God. Nothing now to do but to learn of God and be employed in praising Him forever. Let us, who are still contemplating that joy and delight, unite our voices to hymn the song of the poet:

"O sweet employ, to sing and trace,
Th' amazing heights and depths of grace
And spend from sin and sorrow free,
A blissful, vast eternity."
"O what a sweet exalted song,
When every tribe and every tongue,
Redeemed by blood with Christ appear
And join in one full chorus there."
"My soul anticipates the day,
Would stretch her wings and soar away
To aid the song, the psalm to bear,
And praise my great Redeemer there."

Mr. Iler appeared before the court before noon and was permitted to go unmolested and without bond with a request that he appear again at 1 p. m. when his case was dismissed. It was reported that Mr. Iler was confined in jail, but this is untrue. No man is more innocent of this charge than Jim Iler. He is a man whose life and character are above reproach.

There has been much said about the blind animal that appeared on the streets of Hartford Monday, on wheels, and much will be said later, when he is brought before the grand jury. And yet there are animals not on wheels, but on pegs, not far away that are rarely ever mentioned. They are of a more docile nature than those that roll from place to place. These things are all sure to man and one to be had as the other. They should be destroyed from the face of the earth. While we abuse those on wheels, let's not forget those on pegs. They were all on rollers we might get rid of them at some future time.

J. L. ELMORE
Passes Quietly From Life to Eternity at the Home of His Father, at Westerfield.

Thursday evening week the friends of education, and especially the teachers, were greatly grieved to learn of the death of Prof. J. L. Elmore, for a long while a prominent and successful teacher, whose genial and happy spirit won the love and admiration of those with whom he chanced to associate. Only a short time ago his happy and cheerful companion was laid to rest in the bosom of the cold earth by whose side friends have placed his lifeless form. How unfortunate it seems to man, that young men, thoroughly prepared and equipped for the duties of life, should be called to quit the pleasures of this world in the heyday of their existence. This is an uncertain life. The well of to-day may be the sick of to-morrow. Prof. Elmore leaves one little child, his parents and a host of friends to mourn his eternal absence. He graduated from Hartford College in 1892 with the degree of B. S. Entering again the following year and pursuing his work diligently he carried with him at the close of the year the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy. Since the day of his graduation he has devoted himself to the profession of teaching. His work as a teacher has been thoroughly satisfactory to patrons and pupils. He was always at his post of duty. In class room, he was kind and attentive, and his daily walk in life was marked by deeds of kindness to all with whom he chanced to associate. He was a faithful and devout Christian, ever ready to assist his church in its work. His many friends everywhere will feel the great loss they have sustained, and the profession, which he graced, upon learning the sad news of his untimely death. In the death of Lemmie Elmore, THE REPUBLICAN feels the loss of one of its ardent and faithful supporters.

SUNNY DALE, KY.
What shall we do with our nations greatest foe? Shall we delay doing the right thing about it as some contend until we find a substitute for it? Of all propositions that is the most childish. A substitute for the saloon. A substitute for the gambling hell. You might as well close up the church until you can find a substitute for the devil. The only substitute for slavery was liberty, the only substitute for sickness is health, the only substitute for wrong is right, the only substitute for the saloon is no saloon. Give the homes of our fair land a chance, and we shall not need a substitute for the saloon, the nation's greatest foe. Shall we regulate it? Shall we say: "You may keep on all the week, but you must close on Sunday. You must not sell to an Indian, but you can debauch our white men. You must not sell to a man that's drunk, but you can intoxicate a man that's sober." The biggest farce outside of perdition is the laws on the statute books of America that were passed to regulate the saloon. You might as well try to regulate consumption by a tax on microbes. Under such laws a mother's boy is not safe until he gets into a penitentiary. Regulation will plant a saloon opposite the factory, on every corner of Main street, and next door to a boy's home, burn out his manhood, school him in crime and send him to State prison.

KEEN EDITORIAL CRITICISM.
Great Democratic Paper Calls Him "Most Shameless of Carpet-Baggers."

The Washington Post, Democratic Independent, but which has been advocating Blackburn and the regular ticket in Kentucky, says under the caption of "The Infamy in Kentucky:"

"It begins to appear that the Kentucky campaign, which opened with the infamous nomination of Goebel by the Democrats, is destined to close with the even deeper infamy of Goebel's election by fraud. The Louisville Courier Journal, which has become the exponent, is not the authorized organ of Goebelism and its methods, is now telling us under triumphant headlines and with honest pride how the pure minded Democratic officials throughout the State are steadily robbing Taylor of his vote, and as steadily overcoming by the foulest and most insolent expedients the Republicans' legitimate majority. What was begun upon the scale of petty larceny—the theft of isolated ballot boxes and the disqualification of small groups of voters here and there—has reached the proportions of wholesale plunder and spoliation."

"The Goebel officials have boldly abandoned the furtive, piecemeal system, and are now stealing by counties instead of by precincts. The most voracious and arrogant carpet bagger that went South in the reconstruction times to ravage States and looting their treasuries would turn in his grave to-day—turn with envy and regret—if he could know what a bungling journeyman he was compared with Kentucky adept."

"We risk nothing in the assertion that in the history of American elections there has been no spectacle more disgraceful and abhorrent than that now presented by the Kentucky Democracy. That the Republican candidate has been elected by a clear majority is beyond all question. That the election officials, aided by Democratic courts, are gradually but surely extinguishing this majority is patent to the dullest understanding. It is a spectacle fraught with humiliation and shame, and what makes it especially odious in the eyes of decent men is the fact that Goebel, who devised the machinery of fraud, is to be the beneficiary of the operation."

"The disgust and anger generated by these proceedings include the entire country. Honorable Democrats—honest men—all who care for justice, honor and self-respect—resent, denounce and brand them. It is a safe prediction that the Democratic party, not only in Kentucky, but in the nation at large, will not be the victim of such a victory of villainy. The installation of Goebel through the debase methods we have described will give Kentucky to the Republican party for years to come. No honorable man can possible condone those methods or permit himself to be identified with them. The struggle is no longer between Republicanism and Democracy. It is between righteousness and crime."

"He plays well that wins." Hood's Sarsaparilla wins the victory over disease because it possesses genuine curative power.

Watterson on Goebelism.

Mr. Henry Watterson devoted two and a half columns of the Courier-Journal's editorial space Sunday to an attempt to set himself and the paper square with the world on the Goebel question. The article is, however, a begging of the question. Neither its labored length nor its sophistry can overcome the facts that Mr. Watterson and the Courier-Journal opposed the passage of the Goebel law, because of its patent iniquity and dangerous possibilities, and that both Watterson and the Courier-Journal were professedly opposed to every principle in the Goebel platform. The paper's present position is in this instance painfully anomalous, and no sophistry that Mr. Watterson may employ, however pleasingly expressed, can disguise the fact that the Courier-Journal is now lending itself to the uses of a machine and sacrificing all other considerations for the sake of placing a certain man in office.

It is well remembered in Tennessee that Mr. Watterson and the Courier-Journal opposed the counting out of Clay Evans in this State. What Mr. Watterson had to say in regard to that contest might be quoted against him very forcibly now. The Kentucky case is even a more flagrant one than that of Tennessee. The personal bitterness was not so intensified in Tennessee as it is in Kentucky, but everything that was objectionable in the Tennessee contest is apparent in Kentucky, with Goebelism added. Mr. Watterson and the Courier-Journal, in the defense of Goebelism, can not so much as plead the poor excuse of fealty to party. They have not hesitated in elections much more important, so far as the party was concerned, to bolt both the ticket and the platform.

There are few people who will believe that Mr. Watterson has any heart in his present position. He has yielded to the force of circumstances he could not control, and the sophistry and hollow rhetoric with which he seeks to cover his lack of conviction betray a painful disrelish for the work. Mr. Watterson is not a good actor, a Nashville Banner.

CRAZY NEGRO YOUTH
Chops His Aged Father To Death With a Hatchet at Owensboro, Ky.

Owensboro, Ky., Nov. 21.—John Barnett, a well respected old colored man of this city, was brutally murdered this morning by his son, Cicero Barnett. The deed was committed with a hatchet, and the old man's head was literally chopped to pieces. The murdered man was seventy years old and the murderer is twenty. Cicero Barnett has served a term of three years in the Kentucky penitentiary for shooting another negro named Pete Sowder, and has not been long out of prison. The physicians have examined Barnett and they pronounce him crazy. He will be tried to-morrow morning on a writ of lunacy.

This old gentleman belonged to Mr. Morris H. Barnett, during the days of slavery. Many people near Hartford knew him and will learn of his death with expressions of regret.

Counting Out in Kentucky.

It is a sorry political spectacle that is going on in Kentucky. The qualified voters of the State have met and elected a Governor. A majority of the votes is unquestionably registered for one of the candidates. But an election law contrived in the interest of a party is now applied to alter the returns sufficiently to give the certificate of election to the candidate who received the fewest votes. The plot stands forth in full view and its details naturally interest the whole county. A majority for Taylor, the Republican candidate, is in the ballot boxes beyond denial, though the Goebel Democrats were in control of the election machinery of the State, the counties and the precincts. The extent to which this worked to the disadvantage of the Republican candidate, by obstruction and otherwise, can never be known. In spite of the Goebel election boards, supreme everywhere in the precincts, the returns give a majority of several thousand for Taylor. As the Goebel law failed to prevent the election at the polls to the extent desired its other provisions are brought into play to falsify the count.

Several counties must be thrown out bodily to effect this result. In Nelson county the name of Taylor was correctly spelled on the tickets, but the County Clerk, a Goebelite, had certificates printed in which Taylor's middle initial was erroneous. This misprint, due to a County Clerk devoted to the candidate who is to be the beneficiary of the error, is relied on to get rid of 1198 votes. In Knox county it is proposed to throw out a Taylor majority of 1230 because it is alleged the ballots were too thin. In Lewis county there is a Taylor majority of 704, but the election officers, without giving reasons, refuse to certify the returns. Even these changes would not secure a Goebel majority, so other counties are held in reserve for whatever further manipulation may be needed. Goebel claims his election by a daily telegram, though the figures have been plainly against him from the first. He is consistent in one respect. His election law was conceived and pushed through the Legislature to insure his faction against the loss of any election. After inventing a sure thing game he simply takes the next step in applying it.

It is perfectly well known to every intelligent man in the United States that the larger number of the votes cast in Kentucky are for Taylor. Public opinion on the subject at this stage is divided between those who want fair elections and those who favor elections under the control of one party and of counting in its candidates if they should fail at the ballot box. Goebelism divided the Democratic party in Kentucky before the election. Its high handed cheating now will alienate many thousands more. Free government will be a farce if the methods of Goebel prevail. The sovereign rights of Kentuckians will be trampled under foot for the first time in the history of the State. A so called Governor will install himself at the capital in spite of the fact that another man received a large number of votes. Such an outcome will not be credited until the mass of Kentuckians, thus disfranchised, submit to this portentous surrender of the primary rights of American citizenship—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Without Moral Sense.

The Louisville Courier-Journal's pluralities for Goebel have been gradually dwindling until they have disappeared altogether. When the plurality got down to one vote it was easy to see that it could not stand out long. That paper on Saturday prepared another table which showed a plurality of 261 for Taylor, but this table is in many respects the craziest compilation of figures we have ever seen. In the first place, Jefferson county, in which the city of Louisville is situated, is left out, and Goebel is given the 1,198 votes in Nelson county which were actually cast for W. S. Taylor, but which were mistakenly certified to have been cast for W. T. Taylor. Of course, any person with a grain of intelligence or the tiniest sense of fair play would know that a candidate could not lose these votes simply because there was a typographical error in the printing, not the ballots, but of the certificates. Suppose that these 1,198 had been cast for Taylor, but the officers of election had certified that they were cast for Bill Jones, would anybody say that they should be lost because they were certified to the wrong man? If so, the officers of election in Kentucky who were favorable to Goebel made a great mistake in not certifying Taylor's vote to Goebel and being done with it. With the 1,198 voted properly credited to Taylor, he has, according to the Courier-Journal's figures, a plurality of 771 instead of 261, and when Jefferson county is added it will run his plurality up to 3,500. Goebel's only chance of election is to throw out the entire vote of Louisville, where the militia were used, not to intimidate voters, but merely to see that the inspectors of election were allowed to watch the proceedings and observe the count. If Goebel had any of the instincts of a man of honor he would scorn to accept an office by throwing out votes which he knows were properly last for his opponent, and if Watterson had not lost all sense of shame he would have urged through the Courier Journal an acceptance of the result. The trouble with Watterson, however, is that he is a man utterly without the moral sense. He sleeps well not because he has an easy conscience, but because he has no conscience. In the emergency confronting the Democracy of Kentucky if he were possessed of a genuine manhood, he would rise to the occasion and deliver a ringing appeal to the Democrats to accept the result, erase the stain of Goebelism from the party hallmarks and unite for 1900. With Goebel eliminated and forgotten, the Kentucky Democracy can easily win in the next election. And the sooner the dead cat of Goebelism is buried the better it will be for all hands.—Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

COURT NOTES.

The November term of the Ohio Circuit Court convened Monday with Judge W. T. Owen on the bench and Commonwealth's Attorney J. E. Rowe present to forward the cause of justice and to punish the violators and transgressors of the law. Up to the present no jury has been in the jury box. The case of the Com'th. vs. Cicero King has consumed much time and as yet the court has failed to get a jury suitable for the attorneys on both sides, and perhaps will be most of today. The Commonwealth in this case will be represented by Com'th. Atty. J. E. Rowe and County Atty. M. L. Heaven. The counsels for the defendant are Messrs. R. A. Miller and W. T. Ellis. This will doubtless be one of the most interesting cases ever tried at the Hartford bar. These attorneys are men of experience and ability and will measure their lengths in this case. It will consume most of this term of court.

The following gentlemen compose the grand jury for the present term: L. B. Loney, foreman; H. A. Baird, sheriff; J. C. Leach, Jas. Wedding, W. W. Loyd, W. T. Howell, J. R. Hunter, Tice Baker, Eddy Ward, Clem Maples, Chas. Baxley and Luther Render. The petit jury is as follows: W. T. Bean, G. W. Snell, C. R. Campbell, Jas. M. McIntyre, Amos Stewart, L. G. Weller, W. M. Ambros, J. W. Turner, J. P. Gilmore, W. M. Hudson, John E. Davis, W. P. Ewell, C. C. Taylor, W. P. Metcalfe, R. V. Wells, S. S. Acton, W. H. Duke and Ira Bartlett.
